Wintertime

Words: Emily Brontë

Audrey Snyder

24
S.
la la la. la la la la la la. La la la la.
Mzs. glanc-ing stream has cast its som-bre shade And dis - tant hills and val-leys seem in
A.
glanc-ing stream has cast its som-bre shade And dis - tant hills and val-leys seem in 29
S.
la la la la la la la. Sing a song of win-ter-time as frost and snow flakes
Mzs.
fro - zen mist ar - rayed. Sing a song of win-ter-time as frost and snow flakes
A. fro - zen mist ar - rayed. Sing a song of win-ter-time as frost and snow flakes
34
S.
chill the air. Cel - e-brate the win-ter-time, the cold-est sea-son of the year.
Mzs.
chill the air. Cel - e-brate the win-ter-time, the cold-est sea-son of the year.
A.
chill the air. Cel - e-brate the win-ter-time, the cold-est sea-son of the year.
40
S.
Fall - ing, fall - ing down,
Mzs.
See the snow-flakes fall - ing, fall - ing down. Gen-tly float-ing snow - flakes
A.
See the snow-flakes fall - ing down. Gen-tly float-ing

43
S.
Mzs.
A.
cov - er the ground.
Fall - ing, fall - ing
cov - er the ground.
See the snow - flakes fall - ing, fall - ing down.
to the ground.
See the snow - flakes fall - ing down.
46
down,
cov - er the ground.
Come,
Gen-tly float-ing snow - flakes
cov-er the ground.
Come,
Gen-tly float-ing to the ground.
Come,
50
stagger breathing
no breath
gath - er in be - side the fire, and from the win-dow gaze up - on the bleak, yet_ 55
won-drous sight that win - ter has dis-played.
Sing a song of win-ter-time as 60

S. frost and snow-flakes chill the air. Cel - e-brate the win-ter-time, the cold - est sca-son
Mzs.
frost and snow-flakes chill the air. Cel - e-brate the win-ter-time, the cold - est sca-son
A.
frost and snow-flakes chill the air. Cel - e-brate the win-ter-time, the cold - est sca-son 65
S.
of the year!
2
Mzs. of the year!
2
A.
of the year!
2